

DARIUS BROOKS - PRODUCING POWERHOUSE

Chicago, IL – The recording artist, producer, and songwriter – Darius Brooks continues to produce powerhouse hits. On the heels of his debut major-label release on EMI Gospel, he is being called upon by the best in the industry to etch his signature on their projects with his gift.

The title track from his CD entitled “Your Will” is in rotation on both gospel and adult contemporary formats; and the video can be seen on BET & various other gospel video shows around the country.

Most recently, he has added four new projects to his accomplished discography which already includes works with Vickie Winans, Ricky Dillard and Hezekiah Walker. Darius wrote and produced an original piece entitled “Healed Heart” on the upcoming gospel CD of famed jazz musician Ramsey Lewis. Respected colleague Donald Lawrence and label-mate Smokie Norful also joined Lewis on his first gospel project. Dr. Charles G. Hayes & the Warriors released their new album “The Remix”, featuring a song entitled “Touched” by Brooks. In Baltimore, MD he produced and arranged the CD of Apostle Gerald Griffith & the Redemption Christian Fellowship Choir (May 2005). And Legendary soul/rocker Nona Hendryx and her newly formed label, Rhythmbank Entertainment, is set to release the debut CD of gospel phenom – Najiyah in September 2005. The eleven-year-old’s CD is entitled “It’s Just Me” written and produced by Darius along with three additional tracks “Not far from my Heart”, and “Home” (arrangement only),

Darius gained notoriety as the musical director for Reverend Milton Brunson and the Thompson Community Singers. He is also credited with being one of the pioneers of Chicago’s gospel sound. Living in Chicago with his wife Deborah and their one year-old daughter Dasha Lyric he manages hectic performance and production schedules and works hard at making a meaningful impact in music.
